Political Editorial

by AEB

The Seaside POST and News-Sentinel this week endorses the following candidates for election on November 3: Charles O'Brien for State Attorney General; Wilson Riles for State Superintendent of Public Instruction and John V. Tunney for United States Senator.

Charles O'Brien, a young 44 years of age, has spent three-fourths of his legal life in government and the administration of justice. He spent two years as Chief Assistant Attorney General in charge of the Criminal Division; one year as Executive Secretary to former governor Edmund G. Brown. The past nine years he has been Chief Deputy Attorney General of California.

This wealth of experience makes O'Brien the best qualified man to administer the highest legal office in the state. He has a record that is unblemished and untarnished as opposed to his opponent who has been involved in the collection of a "slush fund" used for political purposes.

On all counts, we endorse Charles O'Brien for State Attorney General.

Wilson Riles is one of the nation's leading black educators and is currently the Deputy State Superintendent of Public Instruction. He is also the chairman of President Nixon's task force on urban education. Riles has successfully managed a $100 million program to raise achievement of children from low-income families.

In the matter of school finance, Riles has said that the state must assume at least 50 percent of local school costs. Riles believes in school-community partnership while his opponent has allowed financing of local schools to deteriorate. His opponent is vitriolic in his statements and has divided the education community to the point that a great majority of educators now support Wilson Riles.

We think that the education of our children is far better off in the hands of Wilson Riles.

John Tunney's record for the last six years as a Congressman and his voting on those vital issues that affect the people makes him the far superior man for the high office of United States Senator.

In the House of Representatives, Tunney voted for effective tax relief and tax reform to help all taxpayers; for aid to education programs that help grade and high school children; for a medical care program that would help ALL fo California's elderly persons and for coordinating federal housing and urban programs under one department to help solve the nation's housing problems.

Tunney's opponent voted AGAINST all of the above programs.

Tunney is a worker and a fighter, while his opponent has been a weak Senator and a lackey for "special interests."

We heartily endorse John V. Tunney for the office of United States Senator.

Students Working as Archeologists

The history of early California has new meaning for nearly a hundred fifth grade pupils at the General George S. Patton School, Fort Ord, as they participate in relays in actual archeological diggings in the debris of an Indian midden near San Jose Creek.

Every Monday, Wednesday and Friday after school and on Saturdays, fifth grade teacher Richard Bucich and volunteer parents take a small group of children to the site where Bucich's archeologist friend, Don Howard, is at work. The property is owned by the Thomas Hudson family, who have given permission for the students to have this exciting first-hand experience.

The excavation now is six feet deep. So far the children have discovered shell fishhooks, awls, crude stone implements, arrow points, the remains of fish, sea otter, birds and other sources of Indian food. Fish vertebrae will be sent to the Academy of Science in San Francisco for identification and report in a research paper.

Patton School principal Lorne F. Dewar said one problem the students face is finding money to pay to have the materials dated by the Carbon-1e process. This may cost from $150 to $200. He said that should materials from greater depth be dated it may prove that the Indians used the site for a garbage disposal as much as 6000 years ago.

NEW HOME - Store front shown of H&H Supply Company is only small portion of major $100,000 expansion that has been taking place there over last few months. Today is beginning of Grand Opening celebration at headquarters at Canyon Del Rey and Del Monte. Old H&H Supply was started by J.O. Hanley and was sold to his son Tom in 1956. New expansion makes H&H full line home improvement center. Carl Oliver says that "it is our goal to handle and sell everything that there is available for home improvement."

Murray Announces Plan

Oliver Murray, Democratic candidate for State Assembly in the 34th district this week announced a proposed plan for the use of the Mothball fleet tied up in Suisun Bay. Murray said that "by rehabilitating these old ships and remaking them into floating fish canneries we could convert a $3 million industry into a $3 billion industry. Our land alone cannot produce the future food needs of humanity. The sea is the best source of developing the nutritional needs of the United States."

Murray further stated that "California should not be trapped by a shoreline fishing industry. An ocean-going fishing industry would not be incompatible; we should be fishing at least 2000 miles out. The Russians are doing it and have far surpassed our efforts in this field. A modernized thorougly developed fishing industry would complement our already major agribusiness of the Salinas and Pajaro valleys."

Candidate Murray pointed out that this plan would relieve the shoreline industry and leave it open for the sport fishing enthusiasts; it would supply an answer to the environmentalists and ecologists by giving support to our estuary system of our shorelines.

Murray went on to show how such an industry would provide much-needed jobs, especially in Monterey which would be one of the main fishing ports of this new industry.

Haddad's Proclamation

The Mayor of Seaside, Lou Haddad has issued the following proclamation in honor of United Nations Day, October 25:

The U.N. was established by men who believed countries should use reason instead of force to settle arguments. The survival of the human family depends on using and improving the peacekeeping powers of this association of the Nations of the World."

State Controller Houston I. Flournoy has announced the distribution of $5,554,666 to counties and cities as the September apportionment of cigarette tax.

Monterey County received $7,231.06, and the city of Seaside got $7,541.78. The 58 counties' share was $1,066,296 and the cities' share totaled $4,488,369.

This distribution represents 30 percent of the revenue deposited in the Cigarette Tax Fund during the month of August 1970, less 30 percent of the total administrative costs.

Other cities on the Peninsula that received funds included: Monterey, $10,226.92; Carmel, $2,209.51; Sand City, $199.15; Del Rey Oaks, $628.86 and Pacific Grove, $2,840.77.

They will be assisted by civic and social organizations who wish to participate in the project.

Donations of any quantity will be received at the Manzanita School, 1720 Yosemite Street, Seaside, from now until noon November 25. The school is open Monday through Friday and hours for delivery are from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Baskets are to be distributed at King Junior High School, 1713 Broadway, Seaside, Wednesday, November 25, 7:30 p.m.

Checks to purchase additional supplies to round out the baskets may be made out to Marion C. Woodie, Community Counselor, should be marked "Thanksgiving Project," and sent to Monterey Peninsula Unified School District Community Counseling Office, PO Box 1031, Monterey 93940. Check also may be dropped off at the counseling office, Highland School, Sonoma at Yosemite Street, Seaside.

Annual Setback

The day of our annual setback loometh.

October 25, to be specific.

The end of Daylight Savings time, to be more specific.

At 2 a.m. that morning—or whenever, before or after, you go to bed—be sure to set the clock back an hour. That not only puts you in step with all the other people in the country, or at least those who remember with you, but gives you an extra hour of sleep in case you've been yawning over that lost hour ever since you set the clock forward last spring.

Of course, if you're like most of us, comes the time to make the change and you'll have that old nagging doubt: it IS backward, isn't it? Spring forward, Fall back? Or could it be Fall forward, Spring back?

Not that we want to confuse you.

Funds Are Given to College

A total of $42,381 in Manpower Development and Training Act funds was accepted by the Monterey Peninsula College board of trustees at its October meeting.

The funds will finance "Project Transition" programs in arc welding, auto service mechanics and electrical auto service mechancis conducted by MPC, in cooperation with Fort Ord, for retiring service personnel.

Also acknowledged were gift checks totalling $2,117.50 to establish a student loan fund in the memory of John J. Griffin; a check presented by Harry Ringland, vice president of the Monterey Peninsula Hotel Association, to cover the cost of remodeling that portion of the college's old "T" building which will be used for instruction in hotel and food technology and a gift of a large abstract mural by John Boit Morse to be hung in the lower lounge of the new College Center.

One Day Round-Up Is Saturday

Another one-day aluminum round-up has been set for this Saturday, October 24, by the Youth Group of Sierra Club's Ventana Chapter here.

The teen-agers will man collection depots at all four of the Peninsula's public high schools from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. to accept bags or cartons of aluminum cans, TV dinner trays and other containers and foil.

The Monterey High team will be stationed on Pacific Street next to the tennis courts. At Carmel High, the drop point will be the parking lot next to Highway 1.

In Pacific Grove, a youth group will work in front of the high school on Sunset near Forest avenue. And the Seaside high team will stand at the Noche Buena entrance to the school's parking lot.

"So far, we've collected 3,170 pounds since last winter," said a youth group spokesman. "That's the equivalent of 72,910 aluminum pop cans. And it's more than a ton and a half of aluminum that has been re-cycled to be used over again."

Chamber of Commerce News

At the October 14 meeting of the Seaside Chamber of Commerce meeting, three new members were elected to the board of directors. These were Don Butts, Richard Challis and Richard Penrose. Reelected to the board were Dee Alsbury, Richard Schnal, Paul Davis and Edward Weiner.

A recent visitor to the chamber was E. Joe Lynch of Aptos, California. He is a representative of the United States Chamber of Commerce. He said he was pleased with his informal visit and looked forward to another in the near future.

Entry forms are available at the Seaside City Hall for the 1970 Bicentennial Seaside Art Competitive Competition. The show, which will be held from November 2 through 30, is open to residents of Seaside, Del Rey Oaks, Sand City, Marina and Fort Ord.

According to army statistics there are now 1600 American men held prisoner by the North Vietnamese or unaccounted for and presumed captured. The lieutenant governor's office is requesting all chamber members to help by actively soliciting signatures on petitions.

These prisoners are hapless victims of war in which they courageously performed their duty to their country. With the chamber's help, we can demonstrate to Hanoi that, de-

Seaside Ripples

A.E. 'Andy' Barragan, Publisher

A.E. Barragan

I have restrained myself from writing about the happenings at City Hall in the last few weeks because I felt that the less fuel added to the fire the better. I felt that there were national and statewide issues just before the elections that need a little airing.

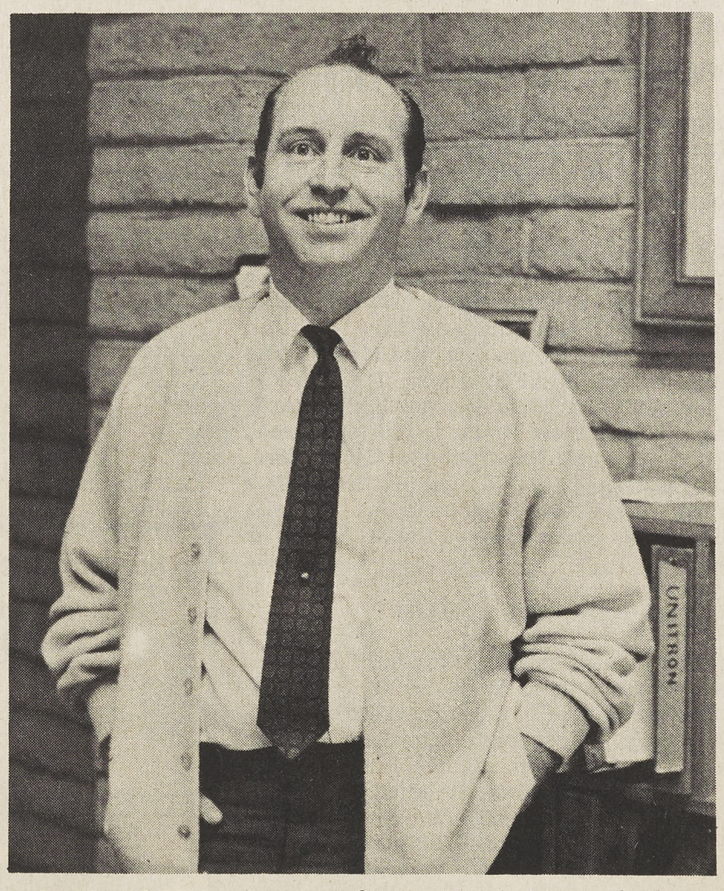

However, the "power structure" has hauled out its big guns and the downtown Monterey-Pebble Beach interests are now using their biggest weapon, The Monterey Herald. In the last few weeks the Herald has run story after story extolling the virtues of our ex-city attorney, Saul Weingarten. They are crying in their beer that after 15 years of "loyal" service, he has been fired. Of course, he has been fired. I am surprised that the new majority on the city council waited so long to do it. Naturally, they let him go. It was one of their campaign pledges and they would have fooled the people who elected them if they hadn't let Weingarten go.

The Herald, as the main propaganda gun of the peninsula power structure, is certainly going to line up to try to maintain control of their "satellite"--the city of Seaside. After all, the outside interests have always been able to call the shots in Seaside and they aren't going to let go now. The voters of Seaside elected a majority to the city council to properly represent the people of Seaside instead of representing the "special interests."

Anyone who has made any study of the way that these "power structures" operate within any community or state know that they never get

DLI'S GIFT FROM ITALY

General Remo Fratoni, comandante of the Italian Language School, dedicated a three-ton marble fountain, a gift from the Italian government, recently in the Mediterranean Garden at the Defense Language Institute, Presidio of Monterey.

Cut from the hills of Carrara, Italy, the marble is a "testimony to the friendship and common ideals, a symbol of the ancient and glorious culture which spread from the Mediterranean area throughout the world and settled with the noble and generous people of America," said General Frantoni.

The ceremony was part of the activities of Italian Week, a segment of the Parade of Nations, a year-long celebration of the bicentennial of Old Monterey.

George Clemens, president of the Monterey Bicentennial committee, presented General Frantoni with a large bronze Bicentennial Medallion, a memento of the trip to Monterey--"Italy, West."

Colonel Kibbey M. Horne, DLIWC commandant, pointed out that the Mediterranean Garden reflects the cultures not only of the Mediterranean, but the Aegean and points inland.

"The sundial is Albanian, the walkways are Grecian, much of the garden was funded by a Spanish cook, and the copper lily which adorns the marble is the creation of a student of Portuguese," Colonel Horne said.

Dr. Guilio de Petra, Italian Branch, DLIWC, thanked all who contributed their "time, money and labors of love to the fulfillment of the dream.

"Six years have elapsed since the first plans for the garden were drawn. They called for marble for the fountain, and now we have it," he reminisced.

The benediction was pronounced by Chaplain Andrew C. Berthold, Reception Station, Fort Ord.

Then, Fort Ord's 28th army band, led by CWO William Jackson, played a medley of Italian music. The audience of over a hundred came forward to admire the fountain's stone, where some tossed coins into the bubbling waters.

TWO-PART PROGRAM

The "Shoestring Players" of Seaside appeared at Service Club One, Fort Ord, Sunday, October 18, with a two-part program.

Opening the show at 2 p.m. were three dance groups: "The Soul Seven," "Disaster II" and "Our Own Thing."

A play, "Cinderfella" which is a turnabout on the Cinderella theme, made up the second half of the program.

The players take their name from "Operation Shoestring," a project begun by the Reverend H.H. Lusk, designed to provide youth in the community of Seaside with opportunities to pull themselves up by their shoestrings and help themselves in the area of recreation, jobs, child care centers and education. The project proved so successful that it now receives matching funds from the federal government. The 25 member cast is a product of "Operation Shoestring" and the volunteers who staff its center.

Mrs. Robert Eklund directed this production, while Mrs. Nate Melton served as Mistress of Ceremonies.

Folk Dancing Program To Be Presented

Monterey Peninsula College's new outdoor amphitheater (also known as the Student Forum) will be the scene of an afternoon of folk dancing and music this Saturday, October 24, starting at 2 p.m.

The event, designed as a celebration of the 25th anniversary of the United Nations, will be sponsored by the MPC International Relations Club.

Albert Daoud, well-known Peninsula folk dancer and teacher, will coordinate the program, which will open with the raising of the United Nations flag.

Old Monterey Bicentennial Parade of Nations groups, the Japanese Obon dancers and various ethnic groups have been invited to participate as dancers in native costumes. Other groups wishing to perform are urged to contact Daoud at 394-9370, or Hilly Van Asdonck, IRC activities commissioner, at 372-2347 before 9:30 p.m.

The public is cordially invited to attend.

Medallion Sale Is Ending

With the closing of the Old Monterey Bicentennial this weekend, most of the banks are soon to discontinue the sale of medallions, according to Fred W. Swanson of the Bicentennial Medallion Committee.

In fact, many of the banks are already very limited in their supply. All the big $50 silver medallions are sold. The bank supply of the $10 pure silver and the large $7.50 bronze sizes is down to a few hundred--and, of course, no more will be minted.

Many people have been putting off getting medallions for their children, but they can't wait much longer. It would be a shame to have the Old Monterey Bicentennial close and not have one of these beautiful medallions. They are truly a collectors item--that can go up in value over the years.

Now living in Big Sur, his studio was previously located in Sonoma County where the current exhibition was realized.

These works, related to the color theorists, investigate the simultaneity of the instant or the superimposition of viewpoint, toward the idea of visually getting inside the lines which create the horizons of our existence.

Warning Issued to Canners

Since harvest time in California also is the peak period for home canning, special precautions should be taken against botulism, State Public Health Director Louis F. Saylor said recently.

Home-canned vegetables, meats and other products with little or no acidity must be properly processed to eliminate the posibility of clostridium botulininum, a poison-producing organism which can cause paralysis and death, Dr. Saylor said. A Stockton man died from botulism and his sister became ill in June after eating improperly home-canned olives, he said.

Commercially canned foods are safe, Dr. Saylor said. Low acid foods canned in California are inspected in the canneries by the department to insure that they have been adequately processed, he said.

Dr. Saylor recommended that home canners obtain booklets describing safe home-processing methods from county farm and home advisers or from the University of California Extension Service, 90 University Hall, Berkeley 94720.

Questions Are Answered

Q. My father was killed while in military service. I am now in the Armed Forces. I am eligible for benefits under the Dependent's Educational Assistance program. May I attend school under this program while in service?

A. No. A person eligible under the Dependents' Educational Assistance program may not enroll while in service. However, he may be entitled to benefits in his own right as a serviceman.

Q. My husband, who was a World War II veteran, died in 1960. My application for a widow's pension was denied at that time because we had been married less than five years. May I now reapply for a pension on the basis of my inability to work because of a disability?

A. Yes, you may reapply for pension, but your disability would not in itself be a consideration. However, a 1967 law liberalized the five-year marriage requirement which was in effect at the time of your husband's death. Now, a widow must have been married to a veteran only one year before his death to qualify for pension.

You may obtain further information and assistance in reapplying for a pension from the nearest VA office or local service organization representative.

Free Films Will Be Shown

Two films, "The Story of a Birth" and "Natural Childbirth" will be shown free of charge at the Monterey Public Library tonight (Thursday) at 8 p.m.

"The Story of a Birth" features Dr. John S. Miller and shows a couple preparing themselves for the birth of their child. The second film, "Natural Childbirth," is by Dr. Robert Bradley, the author of "Husband Coached Childbirth." It shows an actual delivery as well as preparation for childbirth.

The film showing is presented by the Childbirth Education League and following the films a discussion and answer session will be led by Mrs. Judson Ingram, a C.E.L. certified instructor.

The Childbirth Education League sponsors prenatal classes stressing "prepared childbirth." A fee is charged for the eight week course and advanced registration is necessary during the 4th or 5th month of pregnancy. Questions about the films or prenatal classes can be directed to Mrs. Rose Morrisseau at 372-9302.

RAP Test Discussed

Mrs. Mary Ross, Executive Director of The National Council on Alcoholism, Monterey Peninsula area, has announced the receipt of a new publication just issued by the Head Office of The National Council on Alcoholism in New York City.

The first issue of this new publication, entitled "Keynoted" explains that "this is a program exchange bulletin for affiliates and chapters of the National Council on Alcoholism and will be published three times a year."

Of special interest in the first issue of Keynotes, Mrs. Ross points out, is the lead article: "How to Beat the Rap - A Project in Prevention by NCA-Monterey Peninsula Area."

As many members of this community know, the RAP (Risk of Alcohol Problems) Test was developed by the Monterey Peninsula's Health Education Committee from a much lengthier one constructed by a psychologist at the University of Southern California.

"Our test," Mrs. Ross reports, "makes use of some of the statements from the USC test which revealed a personality differential between alcoholics and non-alcoholics; then we added a number of statements related to reaction to alcohol. "By dividing the test into two sections (Part I for personality items and Part II for reactions to alcohol), we felt that we had a basis for scoring which would give a reasonably accurate picture of the individual's risk of alcohol problems and risk of addictive problems regardless of the degree of 'normalcy' or 'deviancy' in the personality. The test is intended to be a tool for arousing interest and stimulating serious thought by the individual about his life style as it relates to his drinking style."

The RAP Test, which has been approved by the Monterey County Medical Society, was launched in 1968. It has been given to over 10,000 persons in the county and is now gaining nationwide acceptance and use. The test is given in various ways and locations. It can be given to groups or individuals and is given also through the mobile testing program.

The Executive Board of the Monterey County Medical Society was one of the first groups to take the test. As a result, the Society's Committee on Alcoholism and Dangerous Drugs indicated the test could be used to score the risk of any addictive problem, whether with alcohol or other drugs.

Major General E.K. Wright, USA (Ret.), President of the Monterey Peninsula Area Council of NCA, commenting on the Keynote article said, "The local NCA Council is extremely pleased to receive nationwide recognition of the RAP Test. We feel that is has been a significant contribution in the prevention and recognition of alcoholism in its early stages. We are also very happy to learn that the State of California has, through its alcoholism program, recognized the value of the test as evidenced by their recent decision to print the revised RAP Test on a statewide basis and is donating 10,000 copies of the test to the Monterey Peninsula Area Council on Alcoholism. These tests will be made available to anyone wishing to take the test."

He also pointed out that there is no charge in connection with the taking of this test or any of the other services offered by the Council on Alcoholism, it being one of the many agencies receiving financial support from the Community Chest.

Any individual or group interested in this test may obtain further information by calling the Council Office in Carmel at 624-2256, 624-5641 or by writing POB 1058, Carmel, 93921.

Explorer Conference Is Coming

Dr. Milton U. Clauser, Dean of the Navy Postgraduate School in Monterey, will be the keynote speaker at the Monterey Bay Area Council Explorer Conference.

The Explorer Conference slated for Saturday, October 24, from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. is under the direction of Louis Schmidt, Council Explorer Director.

Dr. Clauser, has had a distinguished career in aeronautical engineering, and engineering research. Most recently, while professor of Aeronautics and Astronautics and Director of Lincoln Labratory at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, he gave leadership to the cross country race between students at M.I.T. and California Institute of Technology which tested the feasability of automonile transportation that would emit none or limited amounts of pollutants into the atmosphere.

The purpose of Saturday's conference is to provide an opportunity for post presidents and vice presidents to meet together for scheduling and doing preliminary planning of council-wide Explorer activities for the balance of 1970 and 1971. There will be opportunity for post advisors and Sea Scout Skippers to exchange ideas relative to improving the operation of their units.

Brief reports on recent council-wide activities will be heard.

A mid-day tour of the Navy Postgraduate School is scheduled for all participants.

out in front on any of the issues. They use puppets like Mayor Lou Haddad. They set up committees like the one that Colonel Dolan heads to try to stir up trouble so that they can then ask for a recall. They set up "straw men" and then shoot them down just to create an atmosphere of confusion and they use the daily paper in the area to spread that confusion. In other words, by the time they are through with their propaganda they make the "good guys" look like the "bad guys" and all of their stooges look like knights in shining white armor that are trying to save the community from those outside "commie" agitators. Don't you believe it!

Let's take up a few of these "straw men" that they shoot down.

1. The city employees get stirred up because a city employee has been fired, namely Weingarten. The city attorney in no way has ever been what you can call a "city employee." He has been hired by the administration on a part-time basis and, in all of these years, evidently he liked it that way. This year the new majority on the city council wanted a full-time city attorney and they didn't want the one which had been beholden to the old administration. It's that simple. The only other employee that falls into the same category is the City Manager. None of the other city employees is hired on the same basis as these two. Then how can they be so stirred up about themselves getting fired. Well, they can't and Council McGrath offered them the security of civil service if they were really afraid for their jobs.

2. The "Pit" land trade is another example. The old administration entered into negotiations to trade the old city hall for the property up at the corner of Noche Buena and Broadway. The old administration voted to conclude the deal. When the new majority of the council came to power, they simply voted to rescind the action of the previous council, since the deal hadn't been concluded yet. This is a common practice in political bodies and even practiced by such a respectable citizen as President Nixon. The new officeholder feels that he was elected by the people because they agreed with him so when he puts his campaign promises into practice the invisible "power structure" shouts that he is creating "chaos" at city hall. Baloney!

#. Deny a parade permit to those "left wing" peace groups, then arrest them for blocking the sidewalk and then, when anyone including the city councilmen, try to defend the marchers' rights call them soft on "commies." This emotional trick works all of the time; after all if you coddle "commies," you, too, are bad.

These are just a few of the examples of how the propaganda machine works up a community until they are so confused that, as I said before, they make the "bad guys"--in this case Haddad and Weingarten--look like the "good guys." Those city councilmen who were elected to truly represent the interest of the people of Seaside, instead of representing the special outside interests, are made to look like the "bad guys." Don't you believe it. Don't be taken in by the daily headlines. Try to look behind the issues and try to find out why the power structure from downtown Monterey and Pebble Beach want to retain Haddad and Weingarten. Maybe a Grand Jury investigation as some have suggested might be a good way to get everything out into the open. It's up to you--the voters of Seaside--to decide the destiny of your city.

Letter to Editor

Editor: I would like to reassure the hundreds of people of Monterey County that have volunteered their active participation in my campaign for Assemblyman from Monterey County. Together we will win this election. The fact that I am a working man, supporting a family of six, will never divert my commitment to almost 17,000 people who voted to support me in the June primary.

My campaign is now in full force. My candidacy will stress four issues critical to the restoration of a sound, stable society in California---runaway inflation, ruinous unemployment, consumer protection, and public responsibility.

I will define in the next few weeks new horizons, that with imaginative intelligence, economic security and emotional stability are attainable; and that freedom with order are a paramount priority for our constitutional survival.

Steve Ross Reports

The City of Seaside is unique in its soci-economic make up. This is the basic cause for all the attention that the city attracts.

The City of Seaside stands in the front line (or I should say it is marching in the front line) in the parade of 20th century change.

Many of us in leadership are not ready to accept the degree or rate of change that is coming upon us. We, therefore, spend most of our time resisting change or trying to "turn back the clock" to the so called "good old days."

There are those among us who consider the removal of old buildings and the contruction of new ones or the building of a beautiful street plan and a strong commercial and tax base the answer to change.

Still others consider a strong police and fire departments that are capable of putting down any possible trouble the answer to change.

There are those who consider the growing of long hair, wearing "way out" clothes and "doing their own thing" the answer to 20th century change.

And others may consider the answer to be found in control by blacks, browns or whites.

All of these forces are at work, to some degree, in our beautiful city. The cities around us have many of the same problems, but they are heavily weighted in one side or another. What happens in one city, in some way affects those close by. Seaside, therefore, finds itself struggling with all of these conditions at the same time.

I am proud of the voters of Seaside. They took a good look at all this and tried to solve the problem in the last election by moving to give balance to the City Council, at the same time giving voice to all of the people, or at least, as many as possible.

The problem is that we who were chosen to bring about this "togetherness" did not get the message of just how difficult an assignment we have. Each of us take our election seriously. And each of us set out to accomplish our stated mission. This is right. What worries me is that we set out to accomplish our mission without due consideration of the democratic process, the system that selected us in the first place.

Our city elected a Council in April of 1970 with the understanding that there would be some changes in the way things were being done to develop out city. (The views of those who were elected were made quite clear during the campaign).

Our city also elected a Mayor whose views were also quite clear to all concerned. The voters rejected his team because they wanted change. Their views were also quite clear. They rejected the challenger to the Mayor's office because they wanted balance on the Council. His (the challenger's) views also clear. The job now is getting the mandate carried out. To get this done there must be fair and reasonable exchange of views. All views must be earnestly evaluated, and decisions made.

As in the case of the voting public, the majority vote of the Council must prevail, if we are to avoid anarchy. It matters not whether it is the present members of the Council or another Council all together. The majority must rule, or we will no longer have anything that the safety and security of its citizens is the first duty of government. We would not have to do much research to find out that what is safety and security for one may be oppression and in-justice for another, depending upon one's position on the ladder of the society we live in.

It so happens that the present council is in office. Each Councilman, including the Mayor, has a constituency. Each one of them fit some place on that "ladder." It seems to me, that it would not be unreasonable to ask -- that this Council be given time to organize itself and take care of the business for which it was elected. It also seems to me that it is the task of this Council to rise above the level of our individual "hang-ups", move beyond the debate between the rights of the individual (whether or not he is a tax payer), and the rights of society, -- by working with all the strength that God trusted to our care to secure the rights of both.

Who Cares

BY Mel Vercoe

Gov. Ronald Reagan, who for better or for worse is governor of California, has a better vocabulary than most governors. Our law and order governor demonstrated this rather effectively at a Board of Regents meeting recently when he informed Norton Simon that he had definite ideas about Mr. Simon's ancestry--to wite--that Mr. Simon, who ran in the primaries against Sen. George Murphy, is a son of a bitch.

It is all right to put that in print because we all know the governor would not make a public statement that might corrupt our young people's morals. At any rate, now that we know the governor's personality is not necessarily geared to the cause of peace, we can understand his animosity toward the United Nations, which in its own hopeless and frustrated way is trying to do something about peace.

A few months ago, a degenerate by the name of Jerry Rubin spoke to a capacity crowd at MPC--an audience that clapped its hands with joy when he used the filthiest terms imaginable to describe everyone in general, including the audience. And, in a way, Jerry Rubin is in the same class as many authors and playwrights, who about the time "Forever Amber" and "Kitty" hit the book racks, found out that filth sold better than good material.

So, for a speaker or a writer who can't cut the mustard with intelligent ideas, filth is great. It sells. It buys groceries. And if groceries are are not a problem, then it serves beautifully as a means of gathering people so they can be given a message.

On October 16, at the MPC Armory, a large audience found itself being called bastards and sons of bitches by one of the best known science fiction writers of our time. The man was well educated, well read, of course and by his own admission one of the world's finest philosophers, yet he, too, chose to stoop to foul language to enhance his audience draw.

Foul language has its place. It helps ease the pain when one mashes one's finger accidentally with a hammer. It also fills in a lot of gaps in conversation with people who lack the vocabulary to get their message across with ordinary words.

But--at a Board of Regents meeting, no. Before a mixed audience who thought they might hear a good talk given by a man who had reached the pinnacle of success in his field, no. Or in books and magazines just to satisfy a degenerating society's craving for something out of the ordinary, no.

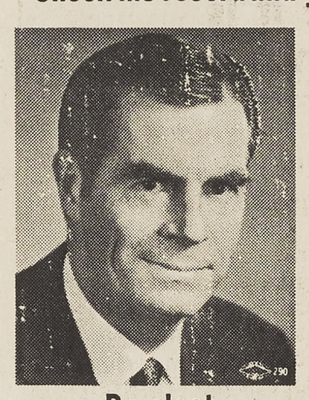

On the other hand, maybe foul language could be taxed, since we pay taxes on everything else. All property owners would be for it, and Jess Unruh could use the issue in his campaign.

Chamber of Commerce

spite divisions of opinion, we can and will take a united stand to ensure the humane treatment of our men. You can help by signing the petition, which is at the chamber office or pick up a copy of one and have it signed.

A growing community, such as Seaside, needs a growing chamber of commerce. You are needed to represent your profession or business in the chamber. The best way to help your business to grow is to support your chamber. The more residences, the more tourists, the more people shopping in our city, that means more business for you. Beer Refreshes The Western Economy

In the Pacific Coast states of Washington, Oregon and California, the brewing industry pumps constant refreshment into the economic system. In 1969, for example, brewers in those three states made these economy-expanding expenditures:

- $35 million for agricultural products used in the brewing process.
- $90 million for packaging and container materials.
- $55 million for wages and salaries.
- $38 million for freight and shipping services.

As a dynamic part of the dynamic West, the brewing industry is a proud contributor to the economy.

What It Is And What It Isn't

By journalism students of Seaside High School

STUDENT INTERVIEW

Miss Debbie Bassett recently returned to Seaside High for an exclusive interview with Seaside High's fourth period journalism class.

She expressed in detail the events of last year's riot at Santa Barbara.

Miss Bassett, a student at the University of California in Santa Barbara, told what she thought caused the riot. She began by saying that the riot was poorly organized. There was no one head leader. Some students were compelled to hurl bricks and stones because everyone else was doing it, she said. Then other students joined in for the action: starting fires and burning the Bank of America.

"Police were swarming all over the place and students had tear gas, and it was terrible," recalls Miss Bassett.

She added that the cause for all this abrubt violence was because the students wanted more say so. The majority of teachers were old and didn't try to get along or communicate with the students. According to her a computer determines every detailed factor of the students' subjects, grades and classroom teachers. "It was very inhuman," said Miss Bassett, "to have the school run by a computer.

"There is a whole concept to this," Miss Bassett began, "that if you students aren't satisfied with anything here, speak out, don't let the teachers decide your future, you decide for yourself what is best, and what you want to be prepared for. Attend student council meetings and voice your opinions and ideas."

WHAT SENIORS THINK

Seniors! Have you any plans for your future? What do you think?

Recently a poll was taken asking several seniors what was on their mind. Their answers included such varied topics as survival, sports, UCLA and Sacramento State College. Some of these answers were on the serious side, but, then, your senior year is serious.

By now a person should have some idea of what he wants to do with his life. However, there are a lot of seniors who don't know or really care about the future. Out of every ten seniors, four don't have anything planned. This is common, however, in every high school. But it's time to start thinking - now!

LOCKERS

Hundreds of dissatisfied students attend Seaside High. They think that the lockers at this school are much too small. There isn't enough room for all the books and notebooks we have to have. We would like to keep our coats in our lockers, but the lockers are so short that there isn't enough room to hang a coat without crowding and covering up books. If we could have a shelf put in them it might be better, but as they are now they are inadequate for student needs.

DEFICIENCY OR NOT

Deficiency notices are sent home during the middle of each quarter. The reason they are sent home, is to get the student into an argument with his or her parents. Deficiency notices are to let parents know that the students are failing.

It might be better if deficiency notices were given to the student and not the parents. The student is the one who must bring up his grades, not the parent. If a student is not planning on bringing up his grades, notifying the parent will more than likely not make any difference.

Instead of deficiency notices, teachers should talk to students and tell them what they need to improve, since when a deficiency notice is given out, the student is not really sure what needs improving. All he has is a piece of ugly blue paper with a bunch of checks all over it.

THE FASHION CLUB

Compared with last year's fashion club, this year's group has already increased and is doing better. Each year the fashion club does little or nothing. The school feels that all we do is model. However, the true goal of our club is to be able to show off the styles and model to the best of our abilities. This year we'll be trying all sorts of new ideas.

We're really interested in the fashion club this year because we'll be going places and doing things. For example, we're talking about having some of the big fashion models come and talk with us. But the biggest event to us is that we're trying to get up a new contest. It'll be called "MISS SEASIDE PAGEANT."

Another big addition to our fashion club is guys. They are joining, which proves that this is not just for girls, but for everyone.

Everybody in the club is really together and working hard with one another.

We'll be seeing you in the fashion club meeting on Mondays in room B-31 after school. And on the 3rd Monday of each month, we'll be meeting in the same room at 7 p.m.

DROP OUTS

Janis Joplin and Jimi Hendrix are dead and part of the music world went with them. Follow their river and it leads to Paradise, but for them Paradise didn't last to long.

Miss Joplin, who was a heavy drinker, looked almost twice her age. She was not known to take narcotics, but when she was found a corner's report said the cause of death was an overdose of drugs.

Jimi Hendrix, who was known to become too high to perform at times, died while chocking on his fluids from an overdose of barbituites.

Miss Joplin and Mr. Hendrix, who were both in their 20's and were able to support their habits, weren't able to support their life.

The world cries for both you Janis and Jimi.

Bank Offers Awards

Bank of America has announced the formation of a new awards program to recognize and honor outstanding students at community colleges throughout California.

In the planning stages for three years, the California Community College Awards program is an outgrowth of the bank's former Business Awards and Man and Woman of the Year programs, which have financially benefited more than 2,800 college students in the past 18 years.

The new program extends the scope of recognition by including more areas of academic endeavor, involving a greater number of students and increasing the total amount of cash awards, according to Mrs. Carol Kirtley, the banks school awards officer and administrator of the program.

In the 1970-71 academic year, 372 outstanding California community college students will share $85,800 in cash awards. Top winners will receive awards of $2,000 each.

Mrs. Kirtley is in charge of all of the bank's school awards programs, which this year will distribute nearly $250,000 to outstanding high school and college students.

Colleges in the northern part of the state will be divided into five geographical areas, she said. Each college will choose its best students in the business, technical-vocational, social science-humanities and science and engineering fields and send them to area semi-finals, which this year are being held March 23 in Sacramento, San Francisco, Oakland, Salinas and Fresno.

At this event, participants in each field will appear before a panel of business and civic leaders, presided over by a chairman who is a prominent educator, to discuss an unannounced subject related to their study field. Other factors taken into consideration in determining winners will be the students' academic records and civic activities.

Two students from each of the four fields will then be selected to advance to the final event, which will be held April 23 at the San Francisco Hilton Hotel. All other participants at the area level will be presented cash awards of $150 each.

The top winner in each field at the finals will receive a cash award of $2,000. Second place winners will receive $1,000, the third place award is $500. The others receive $250.

These awards will be made at a banquet program that evening, following the final selection event.

Last Call For Scholars

The October 30 deadline for filing applications for 16 Pacific Gas and Electric Company scholarships, worth $4,000 each, is rapidly approaching.

Applications and information on the scholarship programs are available from high school counselors and PG&E offices.

Candidates for 12 regional and two company employees dependent scholarships will by judged by a panel of civic leaders. A company scholarship awards committee will select semifinalists and finalists in two special recognition scholarship programs.

Seaside Woman Wins Scholarship

Sandra Wade, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Famous O. Wade of Seaside, has been the recipient of an award for graduate study from the Coretta Scott King Educational Fund of the American Association of University Women, according to a recent announcement from the Educational Foundation AAUW in Washington, D.C.

Miss Wade is pursuing her studies in London, working toward her M.A. in Political Science where she will focus on "Racism in International Relations" from western Colonialism to the present day. At the conclusion of her studies abroad, she plans to teach.

Miss Wade attended Monterey High School and Monterey Peninsula College and received her B.A. degree from the University of California in Berkeley. She also won her Master's degree at the Monterey Institute of Foreign Studies.

The Coretta Scott King Educational Fund which was launched by the American Association of University Women in 1968 as one means of contributing toward a unified society, surpassed its $150,000 goal the first year. It provides grants for study in Afro-American history and culture, peaceful means of achieving constructive social change and workable world peace.

It is especially gratifying to the Monterey Peninsula Branch of AAUW that a local recipient of the Fund has been named, since the Branch, both through individual members and as a group, contributed to the Coretta Scott King Fund when it was being established.

This year (the second of its operation) the Fund has awarded $84,925 to 35 young women, most of them black, for study and research during 1970-71. Six of the 35 will be continuing studies begun under the King Fund awards last year. The current recipients who come from 17 States and the District of Columbia, are using their grants for studies ranging from crime and delinquency, social work, and black studies education to law, dentistry, nutrition, "racism in international relations" and Afro-American music.

No new applications for future awards are being accepted. The remaining balance in the Fund will be used to finance 1971-72 study for some of the current recipients.

The Educational Foundation of the American Association of University Women this year through its Fellowships Fund has awarded over $395,300 in stipends to 129 women from the United States and 28 countries around the world, for advanced study and research here and abroad during 1970-71. This sum is the largest to be expended by the Association in a single year, during its 82 years of Fellowships awards to women scholars.

While the majority of the individual fellowships are in the $3,000 and $4,000 range, there are six American awards of $4,500 to $5,000 and two international fellowships of $5,000 each.

Funds for the Fellowships are contributed yearly by AAUW members and friends throughout the United States and are supplemented by income from the Fellowships Endowment of 5-1/2 million dollars.

Society's Animals Is Topic

San Jose State College's scholar-in-residence Froben Lozada, chairman of the Chicano Studies Department at Merritt College in Oakland, will make his first speaking appearance on the SJSC campus tonight (Thursday).

The minority civil rights worker will speak on "The Animals in Our Society," a rebuttal to San Jose Judge Chargin's comments about the Chicano community, in the Loma Prieta Room of the College Union at noon. The public is invited to attend.

During his year as scholar-in-residence at SJSC, Lozada will make several major addresses on campus and will appear as guest lecturer in classes. Three additional talks, scheduled for the fall semester, will discuss racism, an historical analysis of the Chicano movement and Malaquias Montoya and Manuel Hernandez, two major figures in Chicano art.

"I'm going to try to convey a message that will stimulate discussion about the fundamental changes that must be made in this country," Lozada stated. He is hopeful that members of the Chicano community will attend his talks because "it is important for them to understand the role the campus is playing in their lives."

The scholar-in-residence program is funded by the Associated Students. Each year's scholar is selected by a student committee which reviews the qualifications of nominated scholars and invites them to participate in the program.

Prior to heading the Chicano Studies Department at Merritt, which is considered to be one of the most expansive and comprehensive Chicano Studies in the country with more than 35 classes offered, Lozada was a counselor for McAllen Public Schools in Texas.

He has taught at New Mexico Highlands University, University of Southern Mississippi and Wisconsin State University. His civil rights activities include participation in the Selma-Montgomery march and the James Meredith March Against Fear.

A native of the barrios of south Texas, Lozada received his bachelor's degree in English from Pan American College in Texas and his masters's in Spanish from the University of Missouri.

Your Social Security

By: Raymond MacDonald

Q. I have been a widow for two and a half years. I was widowed at age 60 and since have been collecting $114.50 per month. On August 29th, I remarried. My new husband is 65 years old. Am I still entitled to accept the check in the amount of $114.50?

A. You are not entitled to $114.50, the amount you have been receiving on your first husband's record of earnings, but you are entitled to receive a smaller benefit. Your remarriage after age 60 does not deprive you of a widow's benefit; but it will be reduced. A widow's full benefit is 82-1/2 percent of her husband's basic benefit amount; but if she remarries after age 60, this figure is reduced to 50 percent. If it is found that a woman in such a situation is entitled to more money on the basis of her new husband's record of earnings, she will collect the larger amount. You must notify your district Social Security office that you have remarried and give the date of the marriage, so a change of name and records can be made and a new payment can be made in the proper amount.

Q. Are the records at the Social Security office confidential or can anyone receive information as to someone else's age? I did not state my correct age to my employer. The firm does not have a retirement plan.

A. The records, by law, are confidential and no one may receive information without your approval.

(Mail your questions to Social Security, c/o Seaside POST News-Sentinel, Seaside, or phone Social Security office 373-3351.)

Grooving Around The Peninsula

with Betty Mann

Hi! there Fellow Peninsulans:

Items of interest around the peninsula include the meeting and discussions of a multi-ethnic group that assembled for a forum meeting here on the peninsula. The purpose of their meeting was to create a more open view among the races.

A major topic of their discussion was the mass exodus of black men into the arms of the white female. They endeavored to find out the reason for this phenomenon. This exodus creates a gap for the black female, who outnumber black males by more than 680,000 according to statistics, as well as for the white male.

At this meeting it was discussed that perhaps some of these black males are assuming the same dastardly role as the despised white slave owner, who hated, but lusted for the desires and companionship of the black female slave

A question was raised that is causing bewilderment and disgust among certain black females. They want to know how one-third of their black men, who are constantly trying to identify themselves as "pure black" soul brothers, who insist on walking "the walk," talking "the talk," giving the black hand signals and wearing the Afro hairdos and daishikis, can walk down the street with a white female mate sashaying on his arm.

Another interesting question was also raised. How, some wondered, can a person talk black so strongly by day and sleep white by night and yet be true to himself, his so-called beliefs and principals that he so loudly advocates.

Someone asked how a black man can preach the evils and transgressions of the white man, but still desire the white man's mate as his wife or mistress and accept her as if she were not of the same mold and kind that he so adamantly rejects. Someone else wanted to know why in slavery times did the slave owner use the same crippling attitude if he despised blacks so much.

Another questioned if the one-third segment of black males rejected their female counterparts because of some of the following reasons: the black female in previous years has been the matriarch of the household; she was always able to find employment albeit in domestic services, while the black man was chronically unemployed or underemployed; in many cases the black female was the breadwinner, which, unintentionally made her man feel emasculated and inferior, which caused a difficult void between the two.

These, perhaps, are some of the reasons why, in many people's eyesight, the black woman is agressive, demanding and domineering. Do certain black men subconsciously resent the image that she reflects of overabundant strength and overprotective mother. Is this the reason why he prefers this particular type of white woman, who is likely to be as crippled psychologically as her black man. The white woman has always been placed on a pedestal and has had few of the hardships of black women or mothers. Does she present a sympathetic and soft shoulder for him to lean on.

The meeting closed by asking what will happen to the excessive amount of black women, who for years have helped her black man -- consoling him when times were hard, his manliness taunted and his spirit broken! She was always willing to hold him up, but now what is left for her with this mass exodus to the other side? What will happen to the rejected percentage of white males who will also be left out in the cold? Will he reciproacte with the rejected black female, who in some ways are considered to be his equivalent in agression and mobility.

"One pleasant note from this meeting" was a hope that the black and white females would get together in the future and discuss both their inequities and to try and get a better understanding of each other. One worried lady (smile) asked if our great grandchildren will have to look in a history book to see what a black man once looked like? Meetings of this sort will be held periodically to enlighten black and white people. I'll keep you informed.

Happenings to come around the peninsula are: The exciting Thanksgiving trip to Hawaii that is scheduled for November 26-29. The tour to the sunny islands of Hawaii costs $120 per round trip and is open to all members of the military and their dependents, retired military and their dependents, civic service employees and their dependents. New Drug Program Planned

The California Youth Authority has announced plans for a new institutional program to help youthful offenders who have had serious problems with drug abuse.

The program, to be centered at the Preston School of Industry at Ione, will feature an extremely close therapeutic relationship between wards and staff, so close in fact that the working group will be known as "The Family."

It will be modeled after ones which have been used successfully at Napa and Mendocino State Hospitals.

Details for the program are now being worked out and it is expected to be in full operation in a few months.

Loren Look, assistant superintendent of Preston who is coordinating planning for the program, said he believes "we can develop a drug treatment model for correctional institutions that will be used throughout the nation."

When the program is at full tilt, Supt. C.A. Terhune said, a total of 50 boys will be involved at Preston. They will be housed in a single living unit and will work very closely with staff on a round-the-clock basis.

The program will emphasize "games," a series of confrontations between wards and staff and among the wards themselves to encourage the drug users to be honest and realistic about the need to give up the use of narcotics.

Look said the state hospital program, while serving as the model for the one at Preston, will be modified to apply to the needs of a youth correctional institution.

The Preston program will be voluntary and participating wards will be screened to include only those who want to participate and who are anxious to overcome their dependence on drugs.

Bureau Elects Officers

A new Chairman, 3 Vice Chairmen and a new Membership Chairman of the Monterey Peninsula Visitors and Convention Bureau have been elected.

The Membership Chairman is William Sefton, Owner of Coachman's Inn.

H.E. "Bud" Allen, Owner of the La Playa, was selected to chair the Advertising Committee.

Sherrell Watson is the Executive Vice President.

Other members of the Board of Governors for the term beginning November 1 are: Bill Coleman, General Manager of Del Monte Lodge; Bud Daniels; Owner of Padre Oaks Motel; Ted Durein, Managing Editor of the Monterey Peninsula Herald; Ed Haber, President of Quail Lodge at Carmel Valley Golf and Country Club; Charles Lovette, Manager of United Air Lines; Max McKee, Manager of Pine Inn; Orval Meadow, Owner of Peninsula Lodge; Mimi Pira, Owner of The Villa; James Poulter, Manager of Olympia Lodge; Robet Saleen, Co-Owner of the Elegant Rooster; Bill Sefton, Manager of Normandy Inn and Peter Stuber, Manager of Mark Thomas' Outrigger.

The Board sets the policy for the operation of the Visitors and Convention Bureau, which is an organization within the Monterey Peninsula Chamber of Commerce. A program of encouraging tourists, visitors and conventions to come to the Peninsula and a staff to service these visitors and conventioneers is the responsibility by the Board of Governors.

California Leads

California led all states in the nation in the number of disabled welfare recipients rehabilitated into employment during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1970, it was reported by State Director of Rehabilitation Robert E. Howard. A total of 3,671 disabled welfare recipients were rehabilitated by the State Department of Rehabilitation.

Director Howard said, "We expect that in California alone the rehabilitations among the disabled welfare recipients will result in an annual savings in public assistance funds of about $2.5 million. Also, we anticipate that about $1.5 million more will be saved annually in Medi-Cal expenditures through these rehabilitations. Combined, the estimated welfare and Medi-Cal savings should total about $4 million annually."

The welfare recipients represent about one-fourth of the 14,358 handicapped persons rehabilitated in California last year. In contrast, welfare recipients rehabilitated throughout the nation represented only one-eighth of the nation's total rehabilitations during the year.

Runners-up to California in rehabilitating welfare recipients during the year were Pennsylvania (2,407), Florida (1,820) and New York (1,477) The state standings were revealed in a report issued recently in Washington, D.C., by the Social and Rehabilitation Service of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

Director Howard pointed out that the annual cost of the Department's rehabilitation services to all its clients is repaid in less than three years through increased tax revenue resulting from the employment of the rehabilitants and the savings in their welfare and institutional costs.

INGREDIENTS OF BEER

California breweries last year purchased more than $26 million worth of agricultural products which were used in producing more than 10 million barrels of beer.

Pre-Fab Housing Is Topic

Speakers include Donald Pinkerton, director of the State Department of Housing and Community Development; Jerome Harris, the department's special consultant on Operation Breakthrough and William Hooper, director of Operation Breakthrough for Boise Cascade.

Also speaking will be Richard Mansfield of the Building and Construction Trades Council of California and James Johnson of Christiana Western Structures.

The 8:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. program will be held at the Hyatt House, 1740 N. First Street in San Jose. Fee is $25.

KENNEDY

If you want more jobs for California, you're for Proposition 10!

Proposition 10 will get our economy going again by making more money available for new homes and apartments, shopping centers and office buildings. And that means more jobs!

How will Proposition 10 do this?

By doing away with California's out-of-date interest laws on large business loans (the kind of loans vital to the construction industry)—and opening them up to free competition. New York passed a law like Proposition 10 way back in 1850. That's one reason why California will this year be deprived of ¾ of a billion dollars which will go to help New York and 44 other states with more modern laws.

Proposition 10 will change all this without costing you a penny or changing the interest you pay in any way. (In fact, it might even lower it in the long run.)

That's why Proposition 10 was passed unanimously by the State Legislature and signed by Governor Reagan. Former Governor Pat Brown supports it. So do business and labor unions. But their endorsements can't make it law without your YES.

So help them by voting YES November 3. You'll be doing a good job for a lot of good people.

Paid for by Californians for Yes on 10
State Chairman: Art Linkletter
Vice Chairman: Hon. Tom Bradley, Hon. Edmund G. "Pat" Brown, Roger Kent, Gordon C. Luce, Mrs. Irene Parsons Mann

Work Campaign Is Increased

Savawork Enterprises, a small job-shop hiring only handicapped workers who are paid on a piece-rate basis, is stepping up its campaign to begin its contract work load, it was announced by Bill Waller, executive director.

Savawork Entreprises (operations title for Salinas Valley Workshop) provides employment for physically, mentally and emotionally handicapped persons who cannot compete for jobs in private industry.

"The training we provide helps them toward that goal of private employment," he said. "But we need a great diversity of job operations so that our employees become better qualified."

The shop located at John and Abbott Streets in Salinas is a non-profit Monterey County organization governed by a 15 member board including representatives from King City and the peninsula.

Waller said that they are looking for contracts in collating, stapling, repair of pallets, metal tube bending, electronic harness making, blister packaging, deburring, drilling, polishing and tapping, electromechanical assembly and light assembly.

Subcontracting to a workshop can be profitable for a business, Waller said. All the work is performed in the shop and one bill covers all, thus providing a savings in space and bookkeeping overhead. When speed is essential, a number of persons can be placed on a single contract, thus saving time. And shops can perform jobs that might otherwise require higher-skilled personnel to complete.

Businessmen who might have subcontract work for Savawork Enterprises are asked to call 758-0973. Ask for Gary Jenks, plant superintendent.

THE PHONE BOOTH

If you're not sure who to call at the Phone Company for certain services, here's a list I thought you'd find helpful:

To order a phone,
To get a different kind of phone service,
To transfer service to a new home,
To change or add a listing in the phone book,
To ask a question about your bill,
To check rates for a particular kind of service,
To get an additional phone book,
To get a free personal directory,
To get help if you've received anonymous calls,
To ask about phone service for a handicapped person,
—CALL YOUR BUSINESS OFFICE.

If your phone doesn't work,
If you find a pay phone out of order,
—CALL REPAIR SERVICE.
(Business Office and Repair Service numbers are listed in the front pages of your phone book.)

To place a long distance call you can't dial direct,
To arrange for a conference call,
To call overseas,
To find out long distance rates not listed in the phone book,
To obtain credit for a misdialed long distance call,
—DIAL "O" FOR OPERATOR.

Sunday, October 25 is the day of the Old Monterey Bicentennial Grand Finale Celebration. Pacific Telephone encourages everyone to attend. Beginning at 11:00 a.m. with a parade through downtown Monterey, the celebration promises to be a great day of fun for the whole family. One highlight of the parade will be an electrically lighted birthday cake, 12 feet high and 10 feet wide.

Old Glory will be raised by the Fort Ord color guard and four bands with over 200 musicians playing the National Anthem in unison.

An All-American picnic, folk music, comedians, storybook characters, and a free petting zoo of live baby animals are but just a few of the days activities. So don't pass it up, come to the celebration at the Custom House Plaza, Sunday at 11:00. I'll see you there.

APPLICATION FOR PUBLICATION OF SUMMONS AND ORDER

In re the marriage of Petitioner: REBECCA CABRERA
and
Respondent: NICOLAS CABRERA

I, THE UNDERSIGNED, DECLARE: That I am the Petitioner in the above-entitled Petition; That Petitioner July 15, 1955, in Brownsville, Texas; That on December 1, 1956, Respondent, without any reason at all, deserted Petitioner, That Respondent cannot with due diligence be found within the State of California. The facts of due diligence used in the effort to find Respondent, NICOLAS CABRERA, are as follows:
I searched the telephone directories of Monterey County and the City of Salinas, and the Registrar of Voters, but have been unable to find his name listed therein;
I went to the Office of the District Attorney, and checked with the District Attorney, with the hope to find light on NICOLAS CABRERA's whereabouts, still the District Attorney is unable to locate him:
Likewise, I canvassed his friends, relatives, former employer, the Motor Vehicle Office, Police Department, and Sheriffs Office in Salinas, and other sources of available information, however, no one could furnish me any information leading to respondent, NICOLAS CABRERA.
A good ground for Dissolution of Marriage exists in favor of Petitioner and against Respondent, as shown by the verified Petition on file herein, which Petition is hereby incorporated by reference, the same as though fully set forth at length.
The Seaside POST News-Sentinel is a newspaper of general circulation, published in the City of Seaside, County of Monterey, State of California; That the publication of Summons in said newspaper is most likely to give notice of the Dissolution of Marriage between Petitioner and Respondent.
WHEREFORE, Petitioner prays that this Court orders that service be made upon respondent, NICOLAS CABRERA, by publication of Summons in the Seaside POST News-Sentinel for four (4) consecutive weeks.
I DECLARE, under penalty of perjury, that the foregoing is true and correct.
EXECUTED on September 15, 1970 at Seaside, California.

RULES OF PROCEDURE
PREAMBLE

The following Rules of Procedure are applicable to City Council meetings and hearing and are intended to apply as well, insofar as possible, to the meetings and hearings of all City Boards and Commissions. These Rules are intended to implement the basic proposition, applicable to Seaside and to other general law cities of the State of California, that each member of the City Council Council has one vote and that the duties and powers of the City Council are vested in the City Council as a body and not in the individual Mayor and Councilmen acting separately. Additionally these Rules are intended to facilitate and expedite the work of the City Council and to insure that the will of the majority is effectively translated into City Council action without undue hindrance or obstruction. The City of Seaside operates under the Council-Manager form of government under which the City Council establishes fundamental policy but deals with matters of personnel and policy implementation through the City Manager and not through direct contact with subordinate City employees. These Rules are intended to expedite the aforesaid principles and insure their proper application.

If a Councilmember, while speaking, is called to order, he shall cease speaking until the question of order is determined and, if determined to be in order, he may proceed. Members of the City staff after recognition by the Presiding Officer shall hold the floor until completion of their remarks or until recognition is withdrawn by the Presiding Officer.

E-5. POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE
The right of a Councilmember to address the Council on a question of personal privilege shall be limited to cases in which his integrity, character or motives are questioned or where the welfare of the Council is concerned. E-6. REMARKS OF COUNCILMEMBERS AND SYNOPSIS OF DEBATE

E-10. FAILURE TO OBSERVE RULES OF ORDER
Rules adopted to expedite the transaction of the business of the Council in an orderly fashion are deemed to be procedural only and the failure to strictly observe such rules shall not affect the jurisdiction of the Council or invalidate any action taken at a meeting that is otherwise held in conformity with law.

F-2. SECOND REQUIRED
A motion by any Councilmember shall not be considered by the Council and voted upon without receiving a second.

F-3. PRECEDENCE OF MOTIONS

Debatable or Amendable - It is debatable but not amendable.
4. MOTION FOR PREVIOUS QUESTION:

7. AMEND:
Purpose - To modify or change a motion that is being considered by the Council so that it will express more satisfactorily the will of the members. If the motion fails, discussion or vote on the main motion resumes. If the motion passes then the main motion should be voted on as amended.

9. MAIN MOTION:
Purpose - The primary proposal or question before the Council for discussion and decision.

G. VOTING

G-1. VOTING PROCEDURE
When any motion is in order for the question, a vote theron shall be taken by voice or roll call and entered in full upon the record. Motions may be passed by a simple majority of the members present at a properly quorumed meeting (2 votes sufficient if only 3 members present) except that the following matters shall always require three affirmative votes:
(a) Adoption of ordinances:
(b) Resolutions granting franchises; and
(c) Orders for payment of money.
A roll call vote shall be used for the above enactments. All other motions shall not require a roll call vote unless demanded by a Councilmember before the negative has been put. It shall not be in order for members to explain their vote during the roll call.

G-3. FAILURE TO VOTE
Every member should vote unless disqualified for cause accepted by vote of the Council or by opinion of the City Attorney. Self-disqualification, without approval, which results in a tie vote shall be avoided as thwarting Council action, but no Councilmember shall be forced to vote. A Councilmember who abstains shall in effect consent that a majority of the quorum may act for him. Tie votes shall be lost motions and may be reconsidered.

G-4. CONFLICT OF INTEREST
Any Councilmember who has a direct personal financial interest in any matter coming before the City Council shall disclose said interest and shall disqualify himself from discussing or voting on said matter. Where it is not clear whether such interest is of a disqualifying nature the Councilmember shall state the facts of the matter to the City Attorney and request an opinion thereon prior to the meeting.

G-5. RECONSIDERATION AND RESCISSION OF PRIOR ACTION
After motion and vote by the Council, such action may be reconsidered or rescinded only in the following manner:
(a) RECONSIDERATION:
A motion to set aside a vote (to reconsider) on a main motion shall always be in order at the same meeting. The motion to reconsider is amendable and debatable. Such motion can be made by any Councilmember regardless of how he previously voted on the matter. If the motion to reconsider passes thereof is to overrule and cancel the prior action.
(b) RESCISSION
A motion to rescind (repeal, cancel, nullify) prior Council action on a main motion shall be in order at any meeting of the Council. The effect of rescinding prior Council action shall operate prespectively only and not retroactively to the date of the original action. That is, it shall not operate to adversely affect intervening legal rights which create an estoppel situation.
(c) LOST MOTIONS
A lost motion is one that fails to receive the necessary number of votes to carry. Tie votes result in a lost motion. Lost motions may be renewed at any subsequent Council meeting. To revive a lost motion at the same meeting the proper action is a motion to reconsider, discussed above.

Church Will Give Lesson

How an understanding of man's true being helps to support moral and other standards will be explained Sunday at Christian Science church services. Services on the Monterey Peninsula begin at 11 a.m.

The subject of the Lesson-Sermon is "Probation After Death." One of the passages to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy states:

"Being is holiness, harmony, immortality. It is already proved that a knowledge of this, even in small degree, will uplift the physical and moral standard of mortals, will increase longevity, will purify and elevate character."

The Golden Text is from Hebrews: "Cast not away therefore your confidence, which hath great recompence of reward. For ye have need of patience, that, after ye have done the will of God, ye might receive the promise."

Problems May Increase

A leading banker believes a greater availability of mortgage credit in 1971 will force much of the real estate industry to realize its problems are more than financial ones.

Addressing the California Real Estate Association at the Hilton Hotel on October 7, Walter E. Hoadley, Bank of Amrica executive vice president and chief economist, said:

"Since the credit crunch of 1966, the real estate industry has focused almost exclusively on the shortage of mortgage credit as the sole cause of all its problems.

"In 1971, however, the industry may well recognize it has marketing problems - rising home prices have eliminated over 75 per cent of California families from the market for new median-priced single family homes built in 1970."

Hoadley said that opportunities will still exist for enlightened and aggressive real estate brokers able to innovate and adapt to the new environment in the state.

The new environment includes a slower rate of job growth, reduced worker mobility, little net immigration and continued reduced volume for the traditional real estate broker.
